E. H. POLLARD, Esq. The Scheme of a Local Bank for this Colony with Branches at the most important places in Cluna, has been in contemplation for a very long period.

The local and foreign trade in Hongkong and at the open ports in China and Japan has increased so rapidly within the last few years that additional Banking facilities are felt to be required. The Banks now in China being only branches of Corporations whose head quarters are in England or India, and which were formed chiefly with the view of carrying on exchange operations between those countries and China, are scarcely in a position to deal satisfactorily with the local trade which has become so much more extensive and varied than in former years. This deficiency the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Company will supply, and will in fact assume the same position with relation to this Colony as the Presidency Banks in India, or the Hanks of Australia in their respective localities. The Establishment of a Mint in Hongkong, providing an adequate supply of proper currency, will render a local Banking medium essential to carry out its operations, and the almost certain disappearance of the existing Compradoric system (so far as money is concerned) will also ensure Hanks becoming in course of time the exclusive medium for the transaction of the monetary operations connected with trade. For the anticipated success of this enterprise support naturally forms a chief element of remube very great, it is intended to establish a local Gift Books of Poems, Enough Arden, by Tenny Board of Directors there for more effectually meet son and other goods suitable for Christmas Preing the work. As circumstances render it advisable the Bank will establish Branches at other

In the distribution of Shares Hongkong and Shanghai will equally participate. Shares will also be reserved for the other ports in China and Japan and for persons residing elsewhere, who are directy interested in the China Trade. Applications for Shares must be addressed until further notice, to the Provisional Committee, care happy to give Lessons in either of them from 8 MESSES. DENT & Co.

Expectations were held out to the Dec. 13th, at the Souman Hospital, Farbeauck | wanderers, and some interest, was exerted on their behalf-but the gorgeous costumes, the admiration of their lady acquaintance, and the temptation, and the poor players were made we give it in extence. fools of, us is usual under such cironinstances, after a week's fruitless negociations. The rovernment could not lend them a site and they were on the point of returning whence they came, when they were fortunate enough to procure the use of a large godown, which they not only converted into a neut, commo dions, and effective theatre, but gave severs excellent performances in before their gentee competitors were ready.

Why, the Amateurs must have been hard at work for fully two mouths in producing the representation which they gave on Saturday night, and we are very sure that they canno and will not give five separate and distinct performances during the whole season! The 200,000 professional actors at the Queens Theatre. givo three separate and distinct performances. every week! In this view of the case we sub mit that the existence of the Amateurs is an absurdity. If five Amateur performances during a senson is to constitute the modicum of theatrical amusement in this colony, then we have no more to say. We submit that such a proposition is too ridiculous to be for one moment consisted of the five not play of The Marble tonable and yet it is virtually advocated Heart, and nothing more. The house was and supported by the community by subscrition and maintenance of these amateurs, wl not only deter profesional artistes from visitng the colony, but actually drive them away after they arrive. If the competition weren fair one, and histrionic talent the guage, the matter would went very different complexion—but it is otherwise. At the Amateur Theatre the performances are absolutely westched—the fun in the farces exclusively consisting in the I die crinoline. At the Queen's Theatre the performances are excellent, both as regards legitimate drama and farce acting. comes it then that whilst the audience at the Amateur, Theatre is highly decorated with accommodation in one place of amusement is -if there be any difference in the nature of the performance, it is in favor of the Uncen's and assuredly if it be not remulsive to see men acting supports the illusion and conceals the

Is it because the Amataurs are burning shining lights in a moral and social point view, and therefore must be worshipped whenever they don the stock and busking and sacriwiles of Bacchus? We suppose this must be On her we beg you'll condescond to smile may visit this oasis of the Far East-to find social and moral virtues rising up, not in condemnation of their calling, but in competition with it! We say it for the hundredth time that it is unbecoming on the part of Gentlemen amateurs to take the precarious bread of life out of the mouths of professional actors, and we further say that it is a disgrace to this tolerated, let alone encouraged. Let us instance Shanghai as an illustration of our argument! An excellent Amateur burlesque company was organised there at the commencement of this winter, and gave one or two highly successful performances, when Mr. Lewis' company arrived. The Arastours instantly retired and gave the professional visitors all the assistance they could. Finaly, like true Thespians, they lionized the wanlerers, some of the loading merchants of the place actually assisting at the performances. Contrast this with the mercenary, selfish, un compromising conduct of the Hongkong amateurs, who if they confined themselves to subscription performances inight find a grain

f justification, but by their public performances step entirely out of their proper sphere. However, as we have said, the Mountain has been delivered at last, not of a monse, but of an abortion. In proceeding to review the performance of Saturday night, it will naturally be supposed that entertaining as we do the sentiments which we have expressed, our indement has a strong bins. That we have feelings and impressions like other mon is of course inevitable, and that our opinions are influenced by those feelings and impressions is but natural. In the case before us howreview the performance on its histrionic merits, making no allowance whatever for those defects which are inseparable from A. mateur representations. The Amateurs themselves have shut themselves out from all such consideration, by competing with professi onal artistes, and it would be both unfair and invidious to judge of two rival companies on Without possessing the inlimate knewledge of the whole affair that one correspondent signing himself "John" professes to have, I would reply to "Observre's" question, contained in his letter of yesterday in your columns, of "what more convincing proof is needed of the total unfi ness of "ladies to manage a school &c. &c.," by anotherviz: what more convincing proof is needed, of bliss. Fatura' total incapacity for the post of school, mistress, thun, when, without reference to the commistee, she coolly takes it upon herself to tell the Parents to remove their children ?. Such a procerding alone warranted her dismissal (which I understand she did not get) however I believe she did absent herself from the house, and bad it not been for Miss. Baxter's kindness in finding an immediate substitute, the school must have been broken up: as it was, only some few of the child-

T is Most respectfully insignated to Parents and Guardians, that, the New Schools lately erected in Pottinger Street corner of Wellington Street, n a style suitable to the wants of the climate and managed with a view of meeting the pecu-, liar want of this Commercial Colony, are now in The system of tuition adopted in these Schools is purely Commercial, Arithmetic, Book-keeping-Geometry, Goography, History, Grammar, Com, position, Poreign Languages, Music, and Drawing, are taught by proficient resident Masters. No objection is made to the admission of any Pupil on the score of religion nor will the religiousfeelings of any pupil be tampered with.

A suite of large Airy Rooms, has been opened in the same Schools for the reception of Boarder Pupils. To Boys leaving home for the first time, the change will be made as easy as can be by the kindness which shall be shown them and by the exclusion of everything materially cocreive.

Then there were shouts for Faust which had been promised from time to time only to be indefinitely postponed. About the middle of the second act the audience grow wild with passion; and things began to look extremely scrious. Soon after the commencement of the third the Queen and King. accompanied by the Intanta Isabel and a superb Court, entered the house for the first time this season. It was evidently expected that the appearance of their Majestics would quell the tunuli.

For once however even the loyal Spaniard apneared unconscious of the presence of his sovereign. The Queen advanced to the front of the royal box, and seemed to smile at the prevailing i clamour but finding it increase, her aspect became serious, and after a short period her Mujesty thought it most becoming to withdraw. Amid the clash of failing firms, Lrought down by the existing financial crisis the emeute at the Opera is the solo subject of convergation here to-day. Such a scene has not been witnessed in Madrid for many years. No notice has yet been given of the reopening of the theatre; and I understand that those connect-

England and Canada. We cannot more sptily describe the times which we live than as a period of general disintegration. A principle has been introduced into politics, very much under the influence of the Emperor of the French, which cuts across the strata of society in a strange and abnormal manner, and often resolves into separate and hostile communities people living under the same Government and comprehended wthin the same territorial limits. The strong measures by which in old times nationalities were fused in each other are not in fashion now-a-days, and sival States ses not unwillingly such a cause of disunion springing up in the largest and most compact communities. If no other grievance can be found, the cause of quarrel always remains that the object of cur dislike is of a distinct and, it may be, a hostile nationality. The Irish don't make much of their catalogue of grievances against England, but they can always appeal with the most powerful effect to the projudices of Colt and Sazon. Denmark might have governed Schleswig and Holstein far worse than any-body ever pro-tended she did, had it not been for the animosity between the Scandinavian and German raccs. This reflection gives additional interest to the last letter of our Correspondent from British America. The picture that he presents to us is singular and instructive. In the vast territory of British A HOUSE at the corner of Hollywood North America we have at least four prominent A Road and Aberdeen Street, has Six Splenraces-English, Scotch, Irish, and French and did Rooms. probably a great many more.
